

2020-2021 Addendum

Addendum to catalog Academic Policies section – Fall 2020

The City University of New York has extended the Special COVID-19 Flexible Grading Policy — also known as the Credit/No Credit Policy — to the Fall 2020 term. The policy will be administered by each of CUNY's 25 colleges, which may alter the policy for college-specific considerations. To learn about your college's implementation of the policy, including how students can opt in and which courses are excluded from the policy, visit your college's Credit/No Credit Policy webpage. To understand the basics of the Credit/No Credit Policy, visit 12 Things to Know. For questions about the policy, such as how it may affect financial aid, credit transfer, or graduate admissions, visit the Credit/No Credit Policy FAQ. The Credit/No Credit opt-in window will be open from December 24, 2020 – January 12, 2021. For instructions on how to opt-in, visit Your College's Credit/No Credit Policy and How to Opt in.

Academic Integrity: Updated to page 88

Academic dishonesty is prohibited in the City University of New York. Penalties include academic sanctions, such as failing or otherwise reduced grades, and/or disciplinary sanctions, including suspension or expulsion. If faced with any type of plagiarism, please consult directly with your department chair.

Veterans Services: Update to page 37

Students in the Military

For students called up to the reserves or drafted before the end of the semester:

- Grades. In order to obtain a grade, a student must attend 13 weeks (five weeks for summer session).
- Refunds. A student called up to the reserves or drafted who does not attend for a sufficient time to qualify for a grade is entitled to a 100% refund of tuition and all other fees except application fees.

For students who volunteer (enlist) for the military before the end of the semester:

- Grades. In order to obtain a grade, a student must attend 13 weeks (five weeks for summer session).
- Refunds. The amount of the refund depends upon whether the withdrawal is before the 5th week of classes. If the student withdraws before beginning of the fifth calendar week (or third calendar week for a summer session), he or she is entitled to 100% refund of tuition and all other fees except application fees. If the student withdraws thereafter, he or she is entitled to a 50% refund.

Other provisions for military service:

- Resident Tuition Rates. These lower rates are applicable to all members of the armed services, their spouses and their dependent children, on full-time active duty and stationed in the State of New York.
- Re-enrollment of Veterans. Veterans who are returning students are given preferred treatment in the following ways:
 - Veterans who were former students with unsatisfactory scholastic records may be readmitted with a probationary program.
 - Veterans, upon their return, may register even after normal registration periods, without late fees.
 - Granting of college credit for military service and armed forces instructional courses.
 - Veterans returning too late to register may audit classes without charge.
 - Late Admissions. Veterans with no previous college experience are permitted to file applications up to the date of registration, and are allowed to begin classes pending completion of their application and provision of supporting documents.
 - Readmission Fee. Upon return from military service, a student will not be charged a readmission fee to register at the same college.
 - Veterans Tuition Deferrals. Veterans are entitled to defer the payment of tuition pending receipt of veterans' benefits.

New York National Guard Tuition Waivers. Active members of the New York National Guard, who are legal residents of New York State and who do not have a baccalaureate degree, are eligible for a tuition waiver for undergraduate study.
