CUNY SCHOOL OF LABOR AND URBAN STUDIES
THE CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

Communications Workers of America (CWA) is one of the three founding unions of the School of Labor and Urban Studies (CUNY SLU) and its predecessor, The Murphy Institute. Our longstanding partnership with SLU has offered higher education opportunities to several hundred CWA-1180 members each year.

ABOUT THE SCHOOL OF LABOR AND URBAN STUDIES

The School of Labor and Urban Studies (SLU) is a public undergraduate, graduate, and professional school in New York City and part of the City University of New York. The curriculum is designed to meet the needs of traditional-age college students and working adults who seek to learn more about the development, infrastructure, and challenges within the workplace and community. Its faculty includes distinguished scholars in the social sciences as well as expert practitioners in government, labor, and public service.

ABOUT THE BENEFITS

Tuition benefits are contingent on the criteria outlined herein and completion of a community service project. To qualify, you must be an actively employed CWA-1180 member in a qualified title as of the first official day of the enrolled semester. A certified voucher is required for each semester you plan to use this benefit. The Ed Fund may not honor voucher requests after the enrollment period has ended (see: <https://slu.cuny.edu/current-students/academic-calendar/>). All terms and conditions are defined by the CWA-1180 Education Fund and are subject to change without notice.

The CWA Local 1180 Education Fund sponsors 30 credits for eligible members seeking an undergraduate degree or certificate and an additional 24 credits for eligible members seeking a graduate degree or certificate. Tuition and registration fee payments are made for up to two (2) courses each semester in either Labor or Urban Studies. There are no restrictions on the number of credits for each course.

If a course is rescored and is eligible for payment from the Ed Fund, you must contact the College Bursar's Office to re-bill the Ed Fund. Please note, retroactive payments will be denied for members that have already exhausted their credit cap.
