

CWA Local 1180's Urban Leadership Program at Queens College

Progress for You, Progress for Your Community

The Urban Leadership Program

The Urban Leadership Program at Queens College is a special series of courses subsidized by CWA Local 1180 for members pursuing a degree in labor studies, urban studies, and urban affairs. All courses in the series are offered for college credit and lead to a college degree from Queens College. Evening classes are available.

Courses subsidized by CWA Local 1180 are designed to:

- Engage you in generating new ideas for solving the City's most pressing challenges
- Apply your experience as a public service professional to examining and challenging government policy and procedures and developing alternative policy recommendations
- Prepare you for a leadership role in your workplace, union, and community

Degree programs that include union sponsored courses:

- BA Urban Studies
- BA Labor Studies
- Accelerated MA Degree in Urban Affairs
- MA Urban Affairs

Benefits for 1180 Members

- 30 credits and student fees towards undergraduate and graduate study in Urban Studies, Labor Studies, and Urban Affairs
- Tuition reimbursement of up to $400 per semester that may be applied to cover the additional credits needed to complete your degree

*Students will be required to participate in a Community Service Project for each semester they are receiving the benefit.

SLU's Murphy Institute for Worker Education at Queens College Offers

- Application assistance
- Academic advisement
- Assistance with transfer credits
- Assistance with union support
- Assistance with financial aid
- Writing support
- Workshops that promote academic success
- Campus parking is available (fees apply)

For more information, please contact:
Heysel Rodas 718-997-3060 Heysel.Rodas@qc.cuny.edu
slu.cuny.edu/worker-education/murphy-queens/