Are you passionate ensuring the clean energy transition leads to good jobs and broadly shared prosperity? In DOE's Office of Energy Jobs, we advise the Secretary of Energy and senior DOE leaders on labor, workforce, and jobs issues. We design policy and implementation strategies to ensure that the jobs created from historic investments in clean energy are family-sustaining careers, accessible to people from all walks of life. We conduct research to inform policy makers, training providers, and employers on jobs trends in the energy industry. We ensure that working people are at the table when we engage with stakeholders. If this appeals to you, apply to be an ORISE fellow in the Office of Energy Jobs. Reach out to Katy Clarke Kathryn.clarke@hq.doe.gov with any questions.

The International Labour Organization (ILO) is a specialized agency of the United Nations devoted to promoting social justice and internationally recognized human and labour rights, pursuing its founding mission that social justice is essential to universal and lasting peace.

All applications, which include a resume and letter of introduction, should be sent to Internship Coordinator at the ILO Office for the United Nations at newyork@ilo.org. Deadline to apply is 11/30. This is a graduate internship opportunity.
