

Shannon Clarke-Anderson joined SLU in November 2003 as the Director of Enrollment with a proven track record in enrollment management. Serving 26 years at Medgar Evers College, Shannon held pivotal positions that shaped her expertise in both Student Services and Enrollment Management infrastructure. As a former Program Director (serving the college's academically at-risk population), Admissions Director and Executive Director of Enrollment Management, Shannon brings a wealth of experience in building and strengthening operational structures, establishing intentional interventions, collaborating with multiple stakeholders, and actualizing multi-faceted strategies with measurable outcomes to promote institutional success. Shannon holds a BA in Communications from SUNY College Old Westbury and an MA in Urban Studies from Queens College of CUNY.

Chris Policano joined SLU in April 2024 as the Director of External Relations. Chris has more than 30 years of experience working in government, the labor movement, journalism and non-profit organizations in New York, Los Angeles and Washington, DC. Prior to joining CUNY SLU in April 2024, he was Executive Vice President of Rubenstein, a leading communications firm in NYC. He has held top public affairs positions at the NY City Council, the Office of the Queens District Attorney, the American Federation of State, County & Municipal Employees (AFSCME), the United Federation of Teachers (UFT), District Council 37 and Phoenix House Foundation. He worked as a reporter for the NY Daily News, the NY Post and the NY Amsterdam News and his work has appeared in New York magazine, The Nation, the Huffington Post and numerous trade publications. A former advisor to Columbia University's Master's Degree Program in Strategic Communications, he has also been a member of the NYC Press Club, the NY Association of Black Journalists and the International Labor Communications Association. He currently serves on the New York State Committee on Open Government.

Violet Bube joined SLU in May 2024 as Manager of Human Resources. Violet comes to SLU with nearly 20 years of CUNY experience as an HR Specialist: she has fourteen years of service at Queens College and five years at Baruch College. Violet brings to SLU a wide range of experience in recruitment and retention of staff, performance evaluation, staff training and development, employee relations, and HR policies and procedures. Violet has a BA in International Studies from the College of Staten Island and a MS in Industrial Labor Relations from Baruch.