Fellowship, Internship and Training Opportunities

The AFL-CIO Organizing Institute (OI) is rising to meet the increased demand in union organizers by connecting passionate, social- and economic-justice-minded activists to careers as union organizers through our Union Organizer Apprenticeship Program. For the first time in many years, we are re-launching this high demand, paid training and placement program. Ideal candidates are looking for full-time, permanent work in a career where they can really make a difference for working people. Applications are open from 6/24/24-7/8/24 for the August 7-9th training in Nashville, TN.
