

CWA Local 1180 Tuition Payment Program

Communications Workers of America (CWA) Local 1180 was one amongst three unions that founded the School of Labor and Urban Studies (SLU) and its predecessor, The Murphy Institute. Our longstanding relationship has offered higher education opportunities to several hundred CWA Local 1180 members each year.

CWA Local 1180's Tuition Payment Program sponsors 30 credits for eligible Ed Fund Participants seeking an undergraduate degree or certificate and an additional 30 credits (effective 1/1/23) for eligible Ed Fund Participants seeking a graduate degree or certificate. Tuition and non-instructions fees are paid by CWA Local 1180 for up to two (2) courses each semester in either Labor or Urban Studies. You can find additional eligibility requirements

Ed Fund Participants must submit a Tuition Voucher Request for each semester they require SLU to invoice CWA Local 1180 for their tuition costs. Tuition Voucher Request open prior to the new semester and typically close once the enrollment period ends. It is recommended that Ed Fund Participants pay attention to the published dates. SLU's Academic Calendar can also help students plan for the upcoming term.
