

Campus Hazing Transparency Report
Campus Report Document

Academic Year: 2025–2026

Date of Report: May 18th, 2026

There were no findings of responsibility for hazing violations between July 1, 2025, and May 18th, 2026.

CUNY School of Labor and Urban Studies (“SLU”) and The City University of New York (“CUNY”) are committed to maintaining a safe and respectful environment in which all students may participate in organizations without being subjected to hazing as a condition of entry or membership. Hazing is strictly prohibited and is inconsistent with CUNY policy and the Rules and Regulations for the Maintenance of Public Order Pursuant to Article 129-A of the New York State Education Law (the “Henderson Rules”). As stated in the report. From July 1, 2025 through May 18th, 2025, SLU is pleased to report there have been no substantiated allegations of hazing involving student organizations established or recognized by the institution.

Students or individuals wishing to initiate a hazing complaint may contact the SLU Office of Student Affairs & Services and/or the Graduate Center Public Safety Office. Complaints may also be submitted to CUNY’s Office of Student Affairs at studentservices@slu.cuny.edu. If there is an immediate threat to health or safety, call 911 and/or contact the Graduate Center Office of Public Safety at 212-817-7761 or 212-817-7777. Any person who is a victim of hazing is strongly encouraged to contact SLU’s Counseling and Wellness resources for confidential support.
